INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The Public Administration domain has received constitutional status by SA's Constitution of 1996. In an attempt to address the challenges and needs of the public sector, this degree seeks to provide a comprehensive qualification in Public Administration. This degree's dual approach regarding majors ensures greater flexibility and specialisation, as required by the public sector. The successful completion of this degree will allow students to pursue careers in different public institutions, within the South African context as well as the SADC region.

DEGREE-SPECIFIC STRUCTURE

1. This degree is comprised of three general streams, namely Public Administration (with an option of Local Government specialisation), Political Science and any additional stream in Industrial Psychology, Economics, Business Management, and Human Resource Management.
2. A research component allows students to obtain crucial skills in research methodology, field work and critical academic writing that will capacitate and empower them immensely for Public Sector demands.
3. This degree ensures relevance, outcomes based approaches and quality.
